THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, SEP. 5, 1906.

WM. JENNINGS BRYAN.

Are we not justified in saying that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this article, is the leading citizen of the age in which he lives, the most conspicuous figure moving on the world's stage of human action in this year of our Lord 1906? And when the fact is admitted, as it must be, the question naturally arises, and why is this so?

As orator, our own Daniel is his equal and as writer Watterson is his superior. As congressman his name became linked with no measure of public import, while his repeat measure as candidate was repudiated by a respectable minority of his own party and went to a death with no promise of a resurrection. He went to the Chicago Convention from which he received his first nomination for the presidency, a poor man, and though since that time he has had no public pay, no connection with a "combine," no suspicion of graft resting upon him, he emerges from the cloudland of two signal defeats an acknowledged rich man.

His letters from abroad were not better written than could have been done by more than a thousand newspaper writers of his native land, and yet we are advised that he was paid for them, more than sufficient to cover all the expenses of his world-encircling tour, leaving him a comfortable surplus.

And what of the home-coming? Did ever warrior of ancient or modern times, returning from fields of battle, flushed with victory, march beneath more triumphant arches? or listen to louder plaudits of well done? or come in closer touch of the heart-throbs of grateful fellow countryman?

Royalty uncovered in his presence, Kings and Emperors did him honor and his tour round the world began and ended in an ovation. Why all this? There can be but one answer and it is found in the fact that deep down in the heart of humanity there is an abiding convictionthat his brother-man is in tender sympathy with the toiling masses and would lighten their burden and brighten their lives.

All hail thou uncrowned king among men!

Senator Tillman has been "saying things" up North again. If they don't want to hear the truth they would do well not to invite him again. But the fact is they do want to hear, that is the Anglo Saxon contingent does, and when they have heard they are not going to forget. The man of pitch-fork fame may be coarse, but we must have some coarse needles as well as fine ones, or the work of sewing will not be well done.

If we can't have a "fair count" then let us at least have peace. Respectfully referred to our brothers of the Times-Dispatch and Evening Journal.

The Richmond Evening Journal has caught the ear of it's next-door neighbor, the Times-Dispatch, and is fast catching that of all Virginia.

More good American money gone abroad King Edward won it at a colossal game of chance which was played in New York.

The news from Russia is as confusing as is guerilla warfare. Persecution of the Jews seems to be a sure thing.

We country folks won't have to foot it to the State Fair grounds. Don't prefer walking when in the city "no how."

Admiral Dewey's bull dog is dead, but the sea dog lives not only to show his teeth but to bite when necessary.

Richmond has had a cleaning up day, but that does'nt apply to her water.

Thomas H. Garnett Dead.

Mr. Thomas H. Garnett, one of the oldest and probably one of the very best men of Buckingham Co, died yesterday at his home near Shepards, aged 88. He was for many years a member of Smyrna M. E. church.

Try wrapping your piece of iron a scrap of an old blanket. It will last longer.

Cub Creek.

Dear Mr. Editor: Since my last writing, the vacation days are over and a great many of our boys and girls have returned to resume their duties with laden hearts.

Our first fall month has come, and soon the forest will be clad in her delicate shades of various colors Why is it that people think Autumn such a melancholy time of year? True it is sad for it makes one think and realize that we, ourselves are not here to last forever, but are like the little faded leaves, soon laid to rest in some autumn woods, but autumn is followed by the spring, so our time of death and burial is followed by the eternal spring of the resurrection.

Mr. Jesse Harvey, of Bluefield, W. Va., visited his home people near Red House last week.

Mr. W. O. Wingfield, of Esmont, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. P. G. Wingfield, of this county returned to his home on Friday last.

Miss Emma Childress left on Saturday last to attend the Piedmont Business College. Her many friends regret to see her leave.

Mrs. Charles Shorter, of Richmond and Mrs. Scott Shorter were the guests of Mrs. S. P. Wingfield last week.

Mrs W. H. Childress is in the Hill City this week.

Misses Lelia and Elsie Hewitt have returned to their home in Lynchburg, after spending several weeks with relatives in our vicinity.

Engineer Jackson, of Harvey, W. Va., is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. M. Jackson, near Red House.

Miss Evie Paulette has just returned from a prolonged visit to relatives near Veneer.

Miss Bessie Cheatham, who has been visiting relatives in this county returned to her home near Spout Springs, last Saturday.

Mrs. E. M. Jackson and son were the guests of Mrs. S. P. Wingfield last Friday.

Mr. Chapman Harvey left on last Sunday to procure a position in Bluefield, W. Va. We wish him much success.

Mrs. Charles Rush is visiting relatives in Lynchburg.

Miss Effie Wingfield has been visiting relatives near Brookneal.

Glenfall.

I suppose it will not be out of order to mention that it is raining this a. m. not in torrents, but just enough to hinder farmers in cutting tobacco, which many had planned to do. This crop which at one time was most promising, is now much injured from the daily rains in August. Though a large average was planted, yet it will be apt to be deficient in weight, which may at last prove "a blessing in disguise.

A very enjoyable picnic was held at Liberty Chapel church Saturday. A most elaborate and excellent dinner was spread and it seemed that as much remained as was eaten. How very enjoyable these occasions are and how refreshing to see the bright faces of the Sunday School scholars, as they go forward to receive the bags of nice candy. Rev. Mr. Allison made a very flowery address, in which were many practical points. The singing was bright and spirited and in conclusion I will say those who failed to attend missed a treat in more ways than one.

Mr. Murphy preached to a large congregation at Mt. Comfort yesterday. The sermon was most excellent and he goes in and out among his people he wins golden opinions. There have been, or will be in a short while almost or quite one hundred additions to the Methodist church during the year. How busy every christian should be in his work for the Master. Life is so brief, and there is so much to be done.

The sad accident in the family of Mr. Cumby has enlisted the sympathy of the entire community. May it be the means of bringing parents and children into the fold of Christ.

The news that Mr. Frank McKinney has bought his old home, is refreshing. What tender and sacred associations cluster around the home of one's childhood and it is not surprising that one wishes to live and die there.

There is no news, and how difficult to write a decent letter without the essential. In the meantime ask our Andersonville correspondent to wake up. We are getting hungry for his letters. We enjoy everyone from West Diawiddie.

Wily.

More rain, and farmers are complaining they can't cut their tobacco.

Mrs. Bessie Moseley Barksdale is on a visit to her father, Hon. L. C. Moseley.

Mr. Alfred Burk, of New York city made a flying visit to Wily. He reports seeing Granison Rogers, one of our Buckingham boys, doing well in New York. He is expected home on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mildred Rogers soon.

Wily, Brierhook and Toga are doing business as usual.

Postmaster J. H. Lewis meets his patrons with a broad smile.

The proposed R. F. D. was turned down. It did not get a move on at all. The patrons of these offices are too progressive. They must have quick mail, as the Star Route furnishes.

Buckingham Republicans.

At the Republican Convention held at Buckingham yesterday Emmet D. Gregory presided as chairman and L. B. Le Sueur as secretary. R. H. Spencer defeated J. W. Word for county chairman after a bitter contest. Emmet D. Gregory was elected secretary by acclamation. The following uninstructed delegates were elected to the Congressional Convention at Staunton, which is to meet Saturday September 8th: R. T. Hubard, R. H. Spencer, W. R. Connor. A. S. Spencer, J. W. Word, Emmet D. Gregory. W. E. McCraw, Gordon T. Gentry, L. B. L Sueur and P. F. Nuckols.

Gregory's friends easily controlled the convention.

Lame Back.

This is an allient for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrau of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure."

For sale by J. R. Atwood, Appomattox; R. J. Carter, Prospect; E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kinfiston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think it should have been relieved quicker if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle"

Two Reasons Why We Grow

Progress is noted in two ways, viz:

1st—The incentive to make provisions for future demands.

2d—The care to make the best possible results of the present.

And so it is today, by such methods,

LYNCHBURG'S GREATER STORE

Stands out as substantial evidence of these two potent factors in commercial upbuilding.

We are never satisfied, no matter how good the service, no matter how splendid the results of our efforts, no matter how superb are the assortments of merchandise offered in our various departments.

We are planning for better conditions, striving to make this store the foremost in the State, and it shall be done only by fair dealing, courteous treatment and prevailing low prices. Thus the tide will swell and the store of yesterday is the better store of today, and on and on till greater things be accomplished, our facilities to serve you the best possible.
